

FORCE FOR GOOD

Nain Velasquez, Parts Counter Associate at Sonsray Fleet Services in Fontana, SAVES a life.

Nain Velasquez made ABC local news on Sunday night for his fast thinking and heroic response to a car crash in Irvine, CA. The incident happened right in front of him, nearly missing him. A woman slammed her car into a tree and burst into flames. Nain quickly reacted and pulled the woman out of her flaming vehicle, saving her life, and risking his own. The woman had only minor scratches and no serious injuries. However, she was taken into custody after authorities discovered she was driving under the influence.

Fortunately, there were no other injuries. Hopefully, the driver will reflect on her near-death experience and realize how dangerous and life-threatening her poor choices were. Thanks to Nain, she has an opportunity for a 2nd chance at life.

Well done Nain!
Thanks for jumping in and helping out.
